EDGEFIELD, S. C., NOVEMBER 21, 1872.

Entire New Stock

the Kottone was sersiffing

"SAMS & HILL.

WE take this opportunity of informing our menda patrons, and the public at large, that our Stock is now Complete in all its Departments. Especially do we invite their attention to bur.

Dress Goods In otions and Hats,

Every piece of which is fresh from New York. Call and examine our Boots and Shoes. Forty Cases just received and still being opened. The made Water Proof Only think of its over HATS for Ladies, Gentlemen, Boys and Girls in endless variety,-al of the latest style.

KID GEOVES THE BROWS, MACES, Toilet, SOAPS, EXTRACES, &c. Neither have we neglected replenishing the Grocery Department which is now complete.

The People of Edgefield will do well to recollect that they can buy their Fall and Winter Dry Goods to the best advantage at the Old ! bunll Cash House of soil' bins guigged!

Christopher Gray & Co.

WE BUY FOR CASH! WE SELL FOR CASH! OD A TOUBAD DEBTS MADE!

Therefore,

MONEY SAVED FOR THE CUSTOMERS.

CHRISTOPHER GRAY & CO., Augusta, Ga Sopt. 25 [1] Cor. Broad and McIntosh Sts.

TO THE CITIZENS OF EDGEFIELD

WE desire to return sincere thanks for their liberal patronage in the past, and hoping in the future to be favored with a continuance of the same. We have on hand the largest and most complete Stock of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, ever brought to this place, consisting of Foreign and Domestic Goods. We have secured the services of a First Class Cutter from New York who we guarantee will give satisfaction in every instance.

We also have on hand a full line of Gents' Furnishing Goods, which we are selling very low.

Very Respectfully,

WHITMAN & BENSON,
229 Broad Street, AUGUSTA, GA.

GEO. C. ROBINSON with-

STAPLES & REAB, WHOLESALE GROCERS

COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

FULL STOCK OF NEW GOODS siqued hade I'l On Hand and to Arrive. Heavy Bengal BAGGING, 50 Hade MOLASSES

1000Bblas HTTHE AL . I . II 10 Hhds Offee, ON

100 Bbis. WHISKEY, 800 P'k'gs: MACKEREL 100 Bbls, Choice FLOUR. 100, Melhim 50,000 Lbs. C. R. SIDES, Long Arrow TIES. Large Sacks SALT Best Leaf LARD, Best Factory CHEESE, Best Satin Gloss STARCH, Best Pearl STARCH. Fresh Cove OYSTERS, Old Gov't. Java COFFEE, Prime Laguayra "Best Adamantine CANDLES, Dry Salt SIDES. All kinds CANNED GOODS.

30:000 W SHOULDERS, AND A FULL STOCK OF FAMILY GROCERIES

Thankful for the liberal patronage bestowed, we hope by strict attention to business, to merit the same in the future.

STAPLES & REAB,

Augusta, Sept. 17, PIERCE B. CHRISTIE,

JOHN C. POPE & CO'S. Emporium of Fashion!

248 Broad Street, 2d Door from Globe Hotel,

WE have received our Entire Stock of Fall and Winter

READY MADE CLOTHING,

For Men and Boys Wear,

HATS, TRUNKS, VALISES, AND SATCHELS, Scarfs, Ties, Bows. Suspenders, Gloves, Hosiery, Furnishing Goods of all Kinds and in Great Variety

WE simply wish to state that our Stock is complete in each Department. And as large and as well assorted as any in Augusta. We are determined to sell as cheap as any house in the

Having a Resident Buyer in New York, our stock is replenished weekly with all the New Sty es as fast as they appear in New York city.

In our Wholesale Department we offer special inducements to Country Merchants; and are prepared to show a larger stock than ever before.

Give the call. Examine our Stock. We misrepresent nothing, and guarantee satisfaction in every respect.

SWEARINGEN

HAVING just returned from Balti-more and New York, we respectfully call the attention of the Public to the fact that we now have on hand a well lowest cash price.

POMADES, Coarse and Fine COMBS, PAPER, PENS, INK, JEWELRY, CLOCKS, MIRRORS, &c.

FAMILY GROCERIES.

If you want good Bargains don't fail to call and examine our Stock before purchasing elsewhere.

SWEARINGEN & SEIGLER.

South Carolina, that we are now prepared to open the Fall Trade with an average

STRICTLY GRADED,

Ample Stocks of Grain.

Other Produce. And also be prepared to fill orders for all lines of GROCERIES, LIQUORS, Thanking the public for the liberal

F. E. STEVENS & CO., 299 Broad Street, AUGUSTA, GA.

BEECH ISLAND LANDS

THE TRACT OF LAND known as the "Myers or Oliver Place," with the Buildings on the same, containing Two Hundred and Forty-Two (242) Acres, moreor less, of high and low land, bounded by lands of Mrs M A Mills and Thos Whatley, three miles from the Sand Bar

Also, THE TRACT known as the "Bender Place," containing Five Hundrel and Forty-Three (543) Acres, more or less, of high bottom land, bounded by lands off the late Doctor Bridford, Mrs Mary Ann Mills, and the Savannah Riv-er, and near the Port Royal Railroad.

Also, THE TRACT of highland with Dwelling and Out Houses, known as the "Parsonage "Place," centaining One Hundred and Thirty (130) Acres, more or less, adjoining the Homestead Place of the late Sannol Clarke

The above preperty will be sold on the following terms: One Third Cash; one third payable at twelve months, and one-third payable in two years, with interest at seven per cent, payable annually. Pur-chasers to pay for titles and necessary

SARAH A. CLARKE, Ex'ix., WILLIAM SHEAR. 7t 48

For Sale.

221 Broad Street GEO. W. TURNER, Cillia Di Graniteville, S. C.

Fine Game Fowls for Sale THE Undersigned offers for sale the very finest breed of GAME FOWLS, and will deliver, in good shipping order, at Pine House Depot, C. C. & A. R. R., at the following prices, viz:

JOHN H. FAIR, Edgefield, C. H., S. C. The Charleston News, Columbia Carolinian and Augusta Constitutionalist will please copy in daily, once a week, for four weeks, and send bill to this Ofoct. 1, 1872, 2m

Fine Horses and Mules! I WOULD respectfully inform my friends and the public that I have Proprietor Palace Stables. Augusta, Ga., Oct. 8, tf 42 Marsden's Pectoral Balm! A CERTAIN cure for Coughs, Colds, Croup. Price, 50 cts. per bottle. Sold by G. L. PENN & SON, Druggists.

Oct. 23.

How Soon Forgotten.

Oh, how soon we are forgotten,
When we rest beneath the sod,
And our feet no longer wander
O'er the paths we off have trod;
When the form that was so cherished
With a love both pure and deep,
Lies within the earth's dark bosom,

For a few brief days, it may be—
Had we home and kindred dear,
When they meet around the hearth.
There will be a lack of cheer;
As a vacant seat will tell them
Of affection's broken ties;
And their thoughts perchance will der, Where the dreamless sleeper lies. But should a stern fate deprive us

Of a bright and chearful home,
And in wearhiess of apint,
O'er life grugged way we round
When the golden bowl is broken,
And the lone one finds a rest;

Georgia.

Por the Advertiser. 114 MR. EDITOR:-In leaving our dear old every one shall know the Lord-until the wickedness of the wicked shall cease.

streets as a mighty river. While we can not deny the fact that we regret, that in the Providence of God, To the Editor of the Daily Union : circumstances have impelled us to sunthat the noble old State of Georgia will withdraw at the right time in favor of on furnish us with a home and a living, of the two other aspirants-most likely both comfortable and pleasant. Though honest John. In any event, look for an the river rolls between us, we are still exciting time when the Senatorial fight near enough to enjoy the anticipation of comes on. much pleasant intercourse. Indeed, Augusta, being the common mart for both fore we found our Georgia home. in business to be sociable. We hope gers among them, for nearly two-thirds State, we still feel like Carolinians, but with this enviable difference, we feel like Carolinians used to feel under the old regime of a white man's government. Breathing here the breath of freedom, in every breeze that crosses the Savanin the tained gale," and feel a keener sympathy for the dear old Palmetto, still groaning under the horrors of Radical misrule and diabolical villainy, try and town society; the privilege, of attending religious services in any of the numerous Churches, whose graceful spires, pointing from earth to heaven, contribute so much solemn grandeur to the beauty of the city; also many opportunities of seeing the passing tions; and, My, every effort shall be to have the contribute so much solemn grandeur to if so disposed, of hearing and enjoying whole people of this State, as well as of the performances of the celebrated Stars, the performances of the celebrated State,

-tragic, comic and operatic; and if—a cently made by the Republican party long if—we only possessed the golden shall be foreshadowed by the blighting influence of a purchased seat in the Senate Respectfully yours, alogue. But, alas! "there is a skeleton in every house," and almost in every pocket; but away with such egotism. Augusta is doing a heavy fall frade: but we must say nothing upon this topic, for the old Advertiser is so completely amusing joke was perpetrated at a certain boarding-house in Hudson last Saturday night. One of the boarders, a very mod est young man, had occasion to be out late. among them can be found several FINE HARNESS AND SADDLE HORSES.

Call and see them at the PALACE STABLES, 152 ELLIS STREET.
C. TOLER,
C. TOLER,
lung a dress over the localogard and ornamented the bureau with false hair, hairpins and fixings—thus giving the room the appearance of being occupied by a lady.

Do as we'do "to hum" has been their nigh undone South Carolina by the exper-payers. If the officials did not steal any-thing, which we know is an absurd protimentality, and has swindling the people and every dollar saithful labor of love, God has so signal collected from taxes was honestly appro-ly blessed the people. We rejoice to priated to legitimate purposes of govern Unche Jake, although a favorite, had many know that our old mother Church, with ment, we still could not hold up under the weaknesses, and among others he was

We rejoice that prany young persons Unless there be a cutting down considerahave been added to the church, and hope and pray that they may become shining lights, and zealous workers in the church of God. O may the work go on, until thing like a tolerable rate. -- South Caro-

Conventa, St C., November 12. My attention having been just called there are advantages, both political and financial, sufficient to reconcile us to the change; and we are encouraged to hope that the noble old State of Georgia will Again, Mr. Editor, I have been informof our acquaintances prove to be those of ed that the story is being circulated that of our acquaintances prove to be those of it is my intention to withdraw in favor of original Carolinians. Though in another Mr. J. J. Patterson. I do most openly brand this trumps as an arount lies set affect for the purpose of strengthening the chances of others interested in the struggle. I defy any man to say that he has carcass upon my presence for the purpose nah, we can more readily "snuff treason of intimating in the slightest manner any such corrupt bargain. I am a candidat sary to say anything; but I deem it a Residing in the vicinage of the city, matter of justice to the public, as well as we have all the advantages of both count to myself, to at once brand this mendacious lie with the stigma that it deserves. I am determined to have the question at the entire country, understand whether or Respectfully yours, . of the nation.

10 00 Augusta-lies-ed, that we fear you will food or raiment. Show us a ragged, bare-I give as references, without consulting them:—Gen. M. C. Butler and Gen. M. W. Gary, Columbia, S. C.; Col. T. G. Bacon, Edgefield, S. C.; Maj. E. Willis, Charleston, S. C.; Mr. John Behler, Augusta, Ga., and Mr. — Gee, Selma, Als. 10 00 think us obtruding into the chair edito- foot boy, rather than an ignorant one. Nor so Much of a Joke. Quite an it is a rule that never fails. Give the

by figure supposed to resemble afemale, which to have mother fown on his friends How to have mother frown on his friends How the word it angers him to be scolded in their presents which against the figure supposed to have mother frown on his friends How the word in a growing the course is like sowing the closure still angers him to be scolded in their presents which against the figure supposed to have on his friends How the doctors aid, "the boy lied, of course."

A friend of ours a few days ago emplied and will be kept so, by Daily Arriming and fixings—thus giving the word, and you will surely reap the whirty wind. The course of a boy thus treated will be down. Far better have him chooses have five entry him and the fourth and the doctors aid, "the boy lied, of course."

A friend of ours a few days ago emplied and will be kept so, by Daily Arriming and said the result of the doctors aid, "the boy lied, of course."

A friend of ours a few days ago emplied and will be with a doctor and in the word, and you will surely reap the whirty wind.

The course of

under the barn. Surday morning he appeared at the table as though nothing had occurred, and could not be prevailed upon to see any joke at all. The result was than its men. One of the curses of mod- fail to lead him to destruction. Is it not severe reputation for proficiency among the darkies who had now and then been like a safe and anquestioned exercise of the darkies who had now and then been like political rights and privileges when ever the same shall be assilled.

The Grand Juty therefore respectfully Jake, although he had never been there was well posted, and had a great repug nance to Massa G-, who was the in nance to Massa G—, who was the in-cumbent at that time. On one occasion, during the Christmas days, while the old judge was quite severely indisposed, Un-cle Jake had been guilty of a misdemean-estly invoked. de Jake had been guilty of a misdemean-

Mr. G --: Please give the bearer thirty-nine lashes and charge to me.

Junge H.

rould give him a grubbing hoe. mave been. The result of his suspicion was that the truth suddenly flashed upon him—he was to be whipped. Seeing a schoolboy approaching he took out the note and said:

"Massa Bob, what in dis note? Got

Brevities and Levities,

so many dis morning I got 'em mixed.' The boy read the note and explained its contents to Jake, who, whistled and laughed to himself as a bright idea struck him. Calling a negro boy, who was near

"Of course I does." "Well, take dis note down dar, to Mass couldn't. sa G an' git a grubben boe, and I wait here 'till you comes back, an' den I gives you a quarter."

"The boy hurried off to "accomplish tris errand, and in due course delivered the note to G-, who took him into the Jake hurried off home, chuckling over the happy result of what might have been business for him.

"Jake, did you get the grubbing hoe?" "No, massa; I give a boy a quarter to to purchase, asked with much feeling fotch dat note to Massa—G, and I spec when he was picked out of the continue.

Your Boy's Guests.

Every right-minded home-mother regards it as a matter of importance to make her home agreeable for her husband's guests. If a gentlemen is expect. ed to dinner, there is sure to be the best linen on the table, and something more than the ordinary meal prepared. She briety. Parents, Read and Remember.

takes pride and pleasure in making her parlor bright, and her guest's room as s an excellent thing for a boy to have his events. poy friends, when they are children of good principles and behaviour, and it is a lastng blessing to a boy when he has a mother who encourages such intimacies. It is in after life if you gratify that desire for a very easy thing to do. A kind, pleas knowledge. Other things being equal, ant word of welcome when he comes will make him at once feel at home. A little pains taken to bring out the stereoscope miliarly called Uncle Jake, and there nov- lof the citizen and the welfare of the com er lived a more provoking old darkov; for munity rests upon a rigid obedience to

for the town constable to administer a selves, whenever necessary for the main-llogging for a consideration whenever the master was disinclined to officiate, and the constable of this particular town had a ask that your Honor will endorse this appeal, and transmit it to his Excellency

TROUBLE WITH WM. GOAT .- The Sac.

A. Wilkinson county man was, very much traubled the other night, hy a troop of goats in the piazza, and be went out it. his night-gown to drive them off. was fun for the William of the gang, just erected hilliself on his hind legs dapped the farmer cut into the yard, where appearance, went to work and disrobed conscience was not as clear as it should him in a few moments. It is anderstood have been. The result of his suspicion among his neighbors that as soon as his

An old wine-bibber says that an His head gave way, but his hand never did: His brain softened, but his heart lady asked a gentleman who was suffering from influenza, "My dear Five handkerchiefs a day, madam." Worse and worse! We recorded comes the Courier des Etats Unis and says it is "L'Epilaryngorrhippodemic."

The Chicago man who stepped behind a pair of mules that he intended when he was picked out of the gutter "if the derrick killed anybody else." cently found amid the ruins of Pompeii, hind by a pienie party. go Grant is receiving the congratulations of his subjects with his usual so-of New York, lately died with effetiepicomfortable as in her power.

But how many mothers take pains to perifribomenosis. That is one disease make it pleasant for their boy's guests. It which the yellow fever ranks, at all Fall of his editorials, and left him $130,000. At a "guessing party," sometime ago, Dr. H- propounded the following: "A boy went fishing. He caught or book of engravings for his amusement, five, and on his return was asked what permission of your boy to take his toys into the parlor for the time if he likes, a little addition to the table fare—all these

VOLUME XXXVI.-Nr. 48

Is now fully prepared to meet the wants of the Popular. Trade with a First Class Dry Goods Stock for Fall and Win-

THE DRESS GOODS and SHAWL DEELRIMENTS emprace every Novelty of the Season, to which will be added -

All are cordially invited to a careful itspection

JAMES W. TURES V and to be an Appendix to the state of th en and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Lients' Forhishing Goods, &c.,

Pro. 238, Broad St., Augusta, Ga,

PREPRICTFULLY amnounces to his Carolina friends that his Stock is Full and

A Varied, and in point of STVLE, FIVISH and PRICES, will compare avorably with any other Establishment in the City."

Give his a call, dr send me your orders, and I warrantiprompt another and your

271 Broad Street, Augusta, Ga.,

Saddles, Harness, Leathers of all Kinds,

> SHOE FINDINGS Belting, Trunks, Bridles, Whips, &c.,

INDIANAPOLIS. WAGON.

(EITHER TRON OR WOOD AXLES,)

vanual News is authority for the follow- NEW AND BEAUTIFUL CARPETS FOR FALL TRADE, "

The public are invited to examine our new and superb Stock of NEW CARPETS to be opened on Monday, embraeing everything new and beautiful in Carpets, Floor and Taole Oil Cloths, Lace and Damask Cartains and Cornices, Wall Papers, Mattings, Chromos, Piano and Table Covers. Carpets made and laid with dispatch,

JAMES C. BAILIE & BROTHER

ARE OPENING A SUPERB STOCK OF STRICTLY CHOICE FAMILY

PLANTATION SUPPLIES,

" " ESTABLISHED IN 1850. A. Prontaut & Son,

Of the best European and American Manufacture in the Southern States, with a selectiassoftment of didth and Now Styles of EPRUSCAN GOLD JEWELRY, set with Diamonds, Pearls, Rubies, Oriental Garacts, Coral, &c.

Also, SOLID SILVER WARE, consisting of Tea Sets, Wait as Ice and Water Pitchers, Castors, Göblets, Cups, Forks, and every thing in the Salverwere line. Fine Single and Bouble Barreled GUNS; Colt's, Smith & Wesson's, Sharp's and Reminerton's PISTOLS, and amany others of the latest invention.

FINE CUTLERY, SPECTACLES, WALKING CANES, and FANCY GOODS of every variety to be found in a first-class Jewelry establishment. Old Gold and Silver taken in exchange for goods.

One Door Below Augusta Hotel, 163 Broad St., Augusta, G.

KEAN & CASSELS.

Winter

AKE pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Edgefield County and Seasonable Dry Goods.

& SEIGLER

Graniteville, S. C.,

Fall and Winter Goods,

STAPLE and FANCY GOODS

Chignons, Switches.
Ladies' and Misses' HATS, FURS, TRIMMINGS, Fancy APTI-

for Men. Hove and Children II A large total READY MADE CLOTH-ING for Men and Boys, at prices which defy competition.

When the soul attuned to sadness the sadness of the past.

Trice CHAINS, WHIPS, SHOVETS, SPANES, Horse SHOES and Nails of all kinds. Trunks, Values, Satchels, Umbrellas, A fine assortment of CROCKERY and LASSWARE, Tollet GOODS, SOAPS and COLOGNE,

BACON FLOURS LARD CORN, MEAL, SUGAR, COFFEE, RICE, SALT, SYRUPS, CHEESE, &c., at the

A Card!

1000 BARRELS FLOUR, Guarantied to Give Satisfaction We will always sell at the lowest mar cet prices.
In addition we will have on hand at all patronage heretofore bestowed, and soli-iting a continuance of the same, we are

WILL be sold, at public sale, at the Lower Market House in the city of Augusta, the first Tuesday in December next, (the 3d.) the following Lands, form-erly owned by the late SAMUEL CLARKE, dec'd., viz:

Ferry, and in close proximity to the Port Royal Railroad. Port Royal Railroad.

Also, THE TRACT known as the "Old Neal Place," containing Seventy-Seven (77) Acres, more or less, of high swamp land, near the Myers Place and Port Royal Railroad, and adjoining lands of Abner W. Atkinson and Jas Panton

Also, A TRACT of high woodland, containing Twenty Eight (28) Acres, more or less, adjoining the Homestead place of the late Samuel Clarke.

1040 ACRES LAND for sale, about 2 miles below the 'Old Wells," on Graniteville Road. Apply soon to J. M. BERRY. Augusta, Ga., or

Single Stag, 1 year old or less, $ 500 Pullet, " " 300 Stag and Pullet, " " 800

The New Administration and its Prom-

the North, with which these men were

They have changed everything, from our admirable judiciary system to the pay know that our old mother Church, with her present able and beloved pastor, is revived, and that many of her members have been brought to life and activity, and are no longer dead tetters, but living epistles, known and read of all men.

and righteousness shall flow down her Gongressman Elliett Decilnes to Sell der the social ties, that still bind us in heart, to the old Palmatto State, we think

The Charleston Daily News of yesterday,

States, we nicet on its thoroughfare, our candidate for the position of United States Edgefield friends, much oftener than bea candidate until the final vote shall have We have found the Georgians kind, been reached by the General Assembly. courteous and hospitable, but too diligent Underlying my candidacy is a question of principle, right and justice, which I am however to make many estimable friends among them. We cannot feel like train. asserted.

> To those who know me, it is unnecesonce settled as to whether the lack of money shall exclude men from office, or whether those qualities alone that can

The place is a sacred edifice in Bath, and the rest of his household thought they would play a joke on him and this is the way they did it. They rigged up a figure supposed to resemble afemale, which they put in his bed, and they hung on a closing prayer, when the slumberer as-

State to bring about certain necessary refirms, to repudiete the fraudulent bends, and to exercise rigid economy in every department of the government. We can most say that we expect them to keep their firminess. If we could have felt any faith in the sincerity of their pledges we should most unquestionably have supported them in the late canvass.

years old—would pay the forfit. As usual, too, the last hope which a mother could cherish in such a frightful position was the chance of government help. The wretchedly weak administrations which play at "in and out," in Athens, still allow these scoundrels to hold the roads and passes of the country; and this poor woman had to trust: her, own courage and was very way to the country of these was or, and punishment was deemed necessary, the judge wrote a note to the constable

Calling on Uncle Jake, the judge or dered him to carry the note to G-Jake started off up town, but his susicions were aroused. He couldn't un-Now, Mr. Editor, permit me to say that there is not the slightest semblance of grubbing hoe at Christmas time, and his onscience was not as clear as it should

"Boy, does you want to make a quar-

That evening, the judge called him up, After this, what?

weaknesses, and among others he was particularly regardless of truth, to such of the United States, while they thus inan extent in fact that occasionally the voke the timely and merciful exercise of empty champagne bottle is like an orphon, because it has lost its pop. ze of a miserly man who died of softening of the brain, a local paper said :

vard, locked the gate, and proceeded, des- the other day that the Herald caffed the to administer the desired flogging, while That was had enough, but now here That was bad, enough, but now here > mar The "bottle of sacred oil" re turns out to have been nothing but a bottle of whiskey inadvertently, left belis has made a fortune by his pen. His father died of grief after reading one

First Class Dry Goods!

260 Broad St., Augusta, Ca.,

NEW NOVELTIES as soon, as they appear."

er is borrect and the differing Augusta and the in the property of the propert

AND A FULL STOCK OF WELL SELECTED GOODS

The most satisfactory Wagon now in use. Warranted in every particular.

JAS G. BAILIE & BRO. 205 Broad Street, Augusta, Ga.

WOOD AND WILLOW WARE, &c. Which all are invited to examine.

The subscribers would respectfully inform the citizens of Edgefield, and sur-ounding country, that they keep a special establishment for the Repair of Watches and Jewelry. Also, 'HATR WORK, in everydesign table to order. All work entrusted to their care will be axecuated. Base this, North, and marranded for one year. At their Store will be found one of the largest Stocks of Gold and Silver Watches

1872

LARGE AND ATTRACTIVE STOCK